

Tanzania International Arbitration Centre

What is TIAC?

The Tanzania International Arbitration Centre (TIAC) is an institution established by Tanganyika Law Society, registered as a company limited by guarantee in November 2019, with the aim of promoting ADR by mobilizing its internal resources and mandated to facilitate the alternative resolution of disputes through domestic and international arbitration and mediation, ensuring competent and continued capacity building to ADR practitioners, the increased understanding of ADR by the private sector and increased awareness of Tanzania's ADR system. The establishment of a TIAC is geared towards building investor confidence in our jurisdiction's ability to rapidly and affordably resolve disputes, creating long-term employment opportunities and providing an alternative to litigation.

Who forms TIAC Membership?

TIAC membership is open and essential to accredited leading dispute resolution practitioners from all fields and sectors including law, engineering, finance, Information Technology and other disciplines

Why should you Join TIAC?

- In less than a year TIAC has proved to be a fast growing network of ADR practitioners in Tanzania
- In less than a year TIAC is gradually building formidable partnerships with regional and international arbitration community that guarantee its members access to global networking opportunities and world class learning resources.
- Within a year of its operation TIAC has organized most ADR trainings in Tanzania with high caliber faculty that guarantee its members' affordable yet high quality continuing professional development.
- TIAC strategy is grounded on intensive mentorship and learning opportunities to young practitioners
- Being the late entry into the ADR Market in Tanzania,
- TIAC offers robust and highly evolved Rules that reflect recent global developments in arbitration
- At TIAC, the focus is not only about ADR Practice, but also at ensuring that its membership effectively contribute to ADR policy and law reform initiatives by the Government and its organs.

What are the needed qualifications for TIAC membership?

Recognizing that ADR practitioners are at different levels of development at any particular time, TIAC has devised its membership to recognize competency and the need for development at different levels and ensuring that its members gradual develop from one stage to higher stage. Thus, TIAC membership is categorized at Associate, Member and Fellow levels. Qualification to TIAC membership is detailed in the "TIAC Membership and Panels of Neutrals Appointment Regulations" as adopted by the TIAC Board of Directors in August 2021

How much does it cost annually to subscribe for TIAC membership?
